The Great January Sale

Is Drawing to a Close.

But a little over a week remains in which to avail yourself of the economies of the most talked of January Sale in the mercantile history of New Jersey. Inventory is just over the way—stocks must be reduced and quickly too, therefore the final days of the January Bargain Sale will be fully as attractive from the economist's point of view as the first.

Garment Economies Clearly Defined.

The spirit of the January Sale is probably more strikingly borne out in this department than in any other under our roof. Many of the offerings embrace garments that have not been on our floor three weeks; while in other instances profits are sharply sacrificed and losses sustained on outerwear eminently suitable for early Spring wear.

We are determined to dispose of a goodly portion of garments before inventory and this is our plan in part:

Women's and Misses' 15.00 Jackets 10.00. We'll guarantee you never bought a better jacket at 10.00. At 15.00 these coats have been considered big value—various styles for young or medium aged, variety of materials, best of linings.

25.00 and 27.50 Tailored Suits, 17.50. A special Spring number in black, navy and brown, 27-inch long jackets, collarless, double breasted and graduated side tucks, front and back—epaulette effect, pedestrian length skirt.

Reg. 7.50 Dress and Walking Skirts, 5.00. Regular and extra sizes, a very pretty assortment of mixtures and cheviots, yoke effects, plain gore flare, navy, black, brown and oxford; also grays.

Misses' 4.50 and 5.00 Separate Skirts, 3.50. A choice lot of pretty mixtures and plain cheviots, very neatly strap trimmed, skirts selling regularly at 4.50 and 5.00. Lengths 32 to 38.

6.00 to 7.00 Silk Petticoats, 3.98. All silk, excellent taffeta, colors and black, various shaped ruffles, a number selling at the very special price of five dollars and several other good styles.

2.00 and 2.50 Sateen Petticoats, 1.50. Not a garment in the lot not worth 2.00 and the majority 2.50. Excellent quality materials in highly mercerized or permanent finish sateen; included in the lot are the new jersey tops.

Rain Coats—Here are coats of the better grades in choice mixtures, suitable for driving, stormy weather or steamer use—with or without capes—all water-proof.

The 12.50 ones at	9.50
The 32.50 to 37.50 ones at	25.00
The 27.50 to 30.00 ones at	19.98
The 22.50 and 25.00 ones at	18.50
Variety of 19.98 ones at	16.50
